

November 9, 1923:

Mr. Lanier Bartlett,
111 West Harvard Street,
Glendale, Cal.

Dear Lanier:

Thank you! Your order for two copies of "Spanish Songs of Old California" has been entered, and they shall go to you as soon as they are off the press, which should be not later than two weeks from now.

I'll be mighty glad to have you come over and bring your youngster to see me.

With love and best wishes,

Always your Friend,

Dear Mr. Lummis,

I want a couple of copies of those
"Songs of California," so put me down on the list.

I'm hoping to get over to see you some Sunday soon--perhaps next--and bring my youngster along to meet you.
Until then, best luck.

As ever,

Samuel Bartlett
